Gentlemen:

I note your Ad. in the January number of the Numismatist, and write to inquire whether the "Exhibition of U. S. and Colonial Coins" held at the Museum in 1914, containing thirty-nine Plates, is bound in cloth at $1.00.

If not, let me know the price, cloth bound if you have it, and I will send money order for same on receipt of your reply.

Very truly yours,

Mr. A. W. Browning
Box 539, Central Islip, N.Y.

Dear Sir:

In response to yours of January 17th, the Catalogue about which you ask, is unbound; but I believe that you could have the binding taken care of for a little over a dollar. We shall be glad to have your order.

Are you a Numismatist? If so, perhaps you would care to consider an invitation to become a member of our Society. I enclose an application card in case you may care to make use of same.

Very truly yours,

Secretary
